

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

John Christopher Pope, Jr.,

Case No. 22-cv-1434 (ECT/TNL)

Plaintiff,

v.

PROTECTIVE ORDER

Derek Chauvin, Alexander Walls, Joshua
Domek, David Nerling, Graham Plys, David Robins, Lucas Peterson, and City of Minneapolis,

Defendants.

Based upon the Court's April 7, 2023 Order and pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c),

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that confidential information be disclosed only as follows:

1. Definitions. As used in this protective order:

- (a) "attorney" means an attorney who has appeared in this action;
- (b) "confidential document" means a document designated as confidential under this protective order;
- (c) to "destroy" electronically stored information means to delete from all databases, applications, and file systems so that the information is not accessible without the use of specialized tools or techniques typically used by a forensic expert;
- (d) "document" means information disclosed or produced in discovery, including at a deposition;
- (e) "notice" or "notify" means written notice;

- (f) “party” means a party to this action; and
- (g) “protected document” means a document protected by a privilege or the work-product doctrine.

2. Designating a Document or Deposition as Confidential.

- (a) A party or non-party disclosing or producing a document may designate it as confidential if the party or non-party contends that it contains confidential or proprietary information.
 - (1) Notwithstanding the foregoing, (1) any body-worn camera footage and audio capturing (a) Plaintiff John Pope, or (b) the events of September 4, 2017, that are described in Plaintiff’s Complaint, and (2) any police reports or other MPD records concerning the events of September 4, 2017, that are described in Plaintiff’s Complaint, shall not be designated as confidential, but shall be redacted to blur faces or remove names or other identifying information of non-MPD employees. Other body-worn camera footage and audio produced in discovery in this action shall not be designated as confidential, but shall be redacted to blur faces of non-MPD employees, if written authorization or consent of an individual recorded on the footage and audio is provided. For purposes of example and not limitation, the faces of Plaintiff’s family members and medical personnel at the hospital and any visible name tag shall be redacted. To be clear, audio from the body-worn cameras shall not be redacted, though the portion of any audio specifically identifying a non-MPD employee shall be redacted.

- (b) A party or non-party may designate a document as confidential by conspicuously marking each page with the word “confidential.”
- (c) All extracts and summaries of documents designated confidential shall be treated as protected in accordance with this protective order.
- (d) The following private personnel data on government employees will not be produced in this action without a specific court order or agreement by the parties: home addresses, home telephone numbers, drivers’ license numbers, medical and psychological data, dates of birth, Social Security numbers, and any information relating to the employees’ family members or familial relationships. Defendants do not waive any Minnesota Government Data Practices Act (“MGDPA”) objections to the production of any other private personnel data not specified above. See Minn. Stat. § 13.43.
- (e) If properly requested through discovery, Plaintiff shall execute any necessary releases for Defendants to obtain relevant documents and information, including but not limited to, medical records, employment records, income tax records, and cell-phone records, directly from the appropriate entity that has possession of the documents and information. Such documents will be treated as confidential by the recipient and shall be so marked upon production to Plaintiff. The parties do not waive any objections to providing a release requested in discovery.

- (f) Deposition testimony may be designated as confidential:
 - (1) on the record at the deposition; or
 - (2) after the deposition, by promptly notifying the parties and those who were present at the deposition within 30 days of the transcript being made available. All persons with copies of the deposition transcript shall then mark the confidential portions of the deposition as confidential. Until the 30-day period has expired, all deposition testimony and transcripts shall be treated as confidential.
- (g) If a witness is expected to testify as to confidential or proprietary information, a party or non-party may request that the witness's deposition be taken in the presence of only those persons entitled to receive confidential documents.

3. Who May Receive a Confidential Document.

- (a) A confidential document may be used only in this action. Confidential documents received in the course of this action may not be used for any purpose or advantage other than the above-captioned action.
- (b) No person receiving a confidential document may reveal it or disclose the contents of that document, except to:
 - (1) the Court and its staff;
 - (2) an attorney or an attorney's partner, associate, or staff, who is assisting in the above-captioned action;
 - (3) a person shown on the face of the confidential document to have authored or received it, or is depicted in the document;

- (4) a court reporter or videographer retained in connection with this action;
- (5) a party (subject to paragraph 9);
- (6) employees, agents, or volunteers of the Minneapolis City Attorney's Office, who are assisting in the above-entitled action;
- (7) elected or appointed officials, management-level employees of the City of Minneapolis, and any other employee of the City of Minneapolis required to obtain or facilitate settlement authority; and
- (8) any person who:
 - (A) is retained to assist a party or attorney with this action; and
 - (B) signs a declaration that contains the person's name, address, employer, and title, and that is in substantially this form:

I have read, and agree to be bound by, the protective order in the case captioned Pope v. Chauvin et al., Case No. 22-cv-1434 (ECT/TNL) in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota. As soon as my work in connection with that action has ended, but not later than 30 days after the termination of that action (including any appeals), I will return or destroy any confidential document that I received, any copy of or excerpt from a confidential document, and any notes or other document that contains information from a confidential document.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

The name and case number may be removed from this declaration and the protective order in the case of mock jury members who are retained to help evaluate the case.

- (c) A party may supplement the “confidential” mark (see paragraph 2(b)) with the words “attorney’s eyes only” for information, documents or portions of documents that they believe in good faith are extremely sensitive such that disclosure to another party would create a substantial risk of harm that could not be avoided by less restrictive means, including information or documents that would, by disclosure to another party, compromise an ongoing criminal investigation. In such a case, the confidential information or document so designated as “attorney’s eyes only” may not be revealed to another party, unless that party is a person described in paragraph 3(b)(3). The parties do not waive the right to challenge the appropriateness of information or documents designated as “attorney’s eyes only.”
- (d) If a confidential document is revealed to someone not entitled to receive it, the parties must make reasonable efforts to retrieve it and notify the producing party.

4. Serving This Protective Order on a Non-Party.

- (a) A party serving a subpoena on a non-party must simultaneously (1) notify the opposing party and (2) serve a copy of this protective order and of Local Rule 5.6 on the subpoena recipient.
- (b) If a party receives a subpoena or other court process that arguably calls for the production of confidential documents, that party shall give the other party written notice of the subpoena or court process and at least ten (10) days’ notice before producing any such confidential documents.

- (c) A party serving a subpoena on a non-party must produce any documents received pursuant to the subpoena to the opposing party within ten (10) business days.

5. Correcting an Error in Designation.

- (a) A party or non-party who discloses or produces a confidential document not designated as confidential may, within 7 days after discovering the error, provide notice of the error and produce a copy of the document designated as confidential.
- (b) Any party receiving such improperly-designated documents shall make reasonable efforts to retrieve any copies they have distributed of such documents and, upon receipt of the substitute documents, shall return or destroy the improperly-designated documents.

6. Use of a Confidential Document in Court.

- (a) Filing. This protective order does not authorize the filing of any document under seal. The sealing of entire pleadings, memoranda of law, exhibits, and the like is strongly discouraged. No document shall be filed under seal unless such document or information therein is genuinely confidential and/or there are compelling reasons to do so. Any party seeking to file a document under seal shall specifically review each document and the information therein to limit sealing only to the extent necessary. A confidential document may be filed only in accordance with Local Rule 5.6. Counsel shall provide the Court with two courtesy copies of the unredacted documents with the redacted information highlighted in yellow. Any joint motion made pursuant to Local Rule 5.6 before United States Magistrate Judge Tony N. Leung shall conform to Exhibit A attached hereto.

- (b) Nothing contained in this protective order shall preclude a party from showing any confidential documents to any third-party witnesses, either during a deposition or a trial, provided that:
- (1) The actual or potential witness may not be given a copy of any confidential documents to take with him or her;
 - (2) The actual or potential witness shall be provided a copy of the protective order and be advised that it is applicable to him, her, or them. The actual or potential witness and his, her, or their attorney shall be informed that they are bound by the protective order, requiring that confidential documents be held in confidence and shall not disclose the confidential documents to anyone except as allowed under the terms of this Protective Order. The witness must agree on the record to abide by such terms or must sign the affirmation in paragraph 3(b)(8)(b);
 - (3) If the witness refuses to abide by the terms of the protective order and the party providing the confidential documents refuses to withdraw its assertion of confidentiality, the party seeking to use the confidential documents shall have the right to suspend the deposition and bring a motion before the Court seeking a ruling on the issue. The parties agree that the confidential documents in question shall not be used during the deposition pending a ruling from the Court; and

- (4) Nothing in this Protective Order shall be deemed to waive a party's right to object to the presentation of confidential documents to third-party witnesses, or their right to seek relief from the Court before the confidential documents are presented to third-party witnesses.
- (c) In the event that any confidential documents are presented during a deposition or shown to a non-party or third-party witness, such documents or information shall not lose their confidential, non-public, or private status through such use.
- (d) Presentation at a hearing or trial.
 - (1) A party intending to present another party's or a non-party's confidential document, or information contained therein, at a hearing must notify and confer with the other party or the non-party at least 7 days before the hearing regarding what information will be presented so that the other party or the non-party may seek relief from the Court if necessary.
 - (2) A party intending to present a party or a non-party's confidential document at trial must notify the party or non-party simultaneously with the filing of exhibit lists for trial so that the party or non-party may seek relief from the Court if necessary.

- (e) Nothing herein shall be construed to affect in any way any party's right to object to the admissibility of any document, information, testimony or other evidence at trial.

7. Changing a Confidential Document's Designation.

- (a) Document disclosed or produced by a party. A confidential document disclosed or produced by a party remains confidential unless the parties agree to change its designation or the court orders otherwise.
- (b) Document produced by a non-party. A confidential document produced by a non-party remains confidential unless the non-party agrees to change its designation or the court orders otherwise after providing an opportunity for the non-party to be heard.
- (c) Changing a designation by court order. A party who cannot obtain agreement to change a designation may move the court for an order changing the designation. If the motion affects a document produced by a non-party then, with respect to the motion, that non-party is entitled to the same notice and opportunity to be heard as a party. The party or non-party who designated a document as confidential must show that the designation satisfies Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c).

8. Handling a Confidential Document after Termination of Litigation.

- (a) Within 60 days after the termination of this action (including any appeals), each party must:

- (1) return or destroy all confidential documents (and copies thereof); and
 - (2) notify the disclosing or producing party that it has returned or destroyed all confidential documents (and copies thereof) within the 60-day period.
- (b) Notwithstanding paragraph 8(a), each attorney may retain a copy of any confidential document submitted to the court.
- (c) No retained confidential documents or internal memoranda or notes discussing a confidential document may be disclosed or used for any other purpose other than for this action.

9. Inadvertent Disclosure or Production to a Party of a Protected Document.

- (a) Notice.
 - (1) A party or non-party who discovers that it has inadvertently disclosed or produced a protected document must promptly notify the receiving party and describe the basis of the claim of privilege or protection. If the party or non-party provides such notice and description, the privilege or protection is not waived.
 - (2) A party who discovers that it may have received an inadvertently disclosed or produced protected document must promptly notify the disclosing or producing party or non-party.
- (b) Handling of Protected Document. A party who is notified or discovers that it may have received a protected document must comply with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)(B).

10. Security Precautions and Data Breaches.

- (a) Each party must make reasonable efforts to protect the confidentiality of any confidential document disclosed or produced to that party.
- (b) A party who learns of a breach of confidentiality must promptly notify the disclosing or producing party of the scope and nature of that breach and make reasonable efforts to remedy the breach.

11. General Provisions.

- (a) The designation of any document, information, or thing as a confidential document under this protective order shall not be used for the purpose of interpreting other legal or substantive issues raised in this action apart from the application hereof.
- (b) Any party may move the Court for a modification of this protective order, and nothing herein shall be construed to prevent a party from seeking such further provision enhancing or limiting confidentiality as may be appropriate.
- (c) No action taken in accordance with this protective order shall be construed as a waiver of any claim or defense in the action or of any position as to discoverability or admissibility of evidence.

12. Survival of Obligations. The obligations imposed by this protective order survive the termination of this action.

13. Prior Orders. All prior consistent orders remain in full force and effect.

14. Remedies. Failure to comply with any provision of this protective order or any other prior consistent order shall subject the non-complying party, non-complying counsel and/or the party such counsel represents to any and all appropriate remedies, sanctions and the like, including without limitation: assessment of costs, fines and attorneys' fees and disbursements; waiver of rights to object; exclusion or limitation of witnesses, testimony, exhibits, and other evidence; striking of pleadings; complete or partial dismissal with prejudice; entry of whole or partial default judgment; and/or any other relief that this Court may from time to time deem appropriate.

Dated: April 7, 2023

s/Tony N. Leung
Tony N. Leung
United States Magistrate Judge
District of Minnesota

Pope v. Chauvin et al.
Case No. 22-cv-1434 (ECT/TNL)

EXHIBIT ASAMPLE LOCAL RULE 5.6 GRID FOR CASES WITH U.S. MAGISTRATE JUDGE TONY N. LEUNG

Docket No.	Description of Document	Relevant Page Numbers	Mark "X" in Applicable Column			Nonparty that Designated Doc. Confidential (If Any)	Reason Why Document Should Remain Sealed or Be Unsealed
			Parties Agree Doc. Should Remain Sealed	Parties Agree Doc. Should Be Unsealed	Parties Disagree

For documents with confidential information spanning more than one category, a separate entry should be used for each category of information. For example, a memorandum contains both confidential financial records and medical records:

Docket No.	Description of Document	Relevant Page Numbers	Mark "X" in Applicable Column			Nonparty that Designated Doc. Confidential (If Any)	Reason Why Document Should Remain Sealed or Be Unsealed
			Parties Agree Doc. Should Remain Sealed	Parties Agree Doc. Should Be Unsealed	Parties Disagree
26	Unredacted memorandum of in support of XYZ, Inc.'s motion for summary judgment	5, 8, 12-15, 23-25	X				Confidential financial information.
26	Unredacted memorandum of in support of XYZ, Inc.'s motion for summary judgment	16-20, 26-27	X				Confidential medical records.